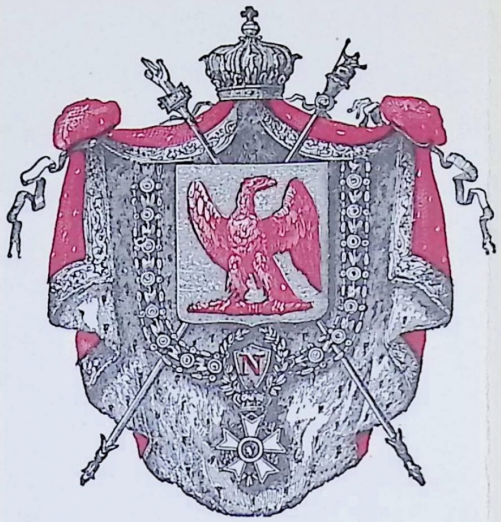
Recollections of the Private Life of



Complete in Three Volumes by Constant

Premier Valet De Chambre

NAPOLEON

Whoever nas read JOHN L. STODDARD'S description of the scenes in and about Paris associated with the life of NAPOLEON must have a desire to know a great deal more than is there recorded about that wonderful man.

Many books have been written about NAPOLEON and the scenes and times of his life, so many indeed that a great many people not only own one or more volumes relating to his life but have extensive libraries of NAPOLEONIC literature.

Of all the books that have been published the most interesting we think, is the one written in 1830 by CONSTANT, his body servant for 15 years and during almost the whole period of NAPOLEON'S great popularity and power.

In this book CONSTANT relates not only the great events of the warrior emperor's life, but the details of his home and domestic life. The work is exceedingly interesting and entertaining; and, as its statements are vouched for by the critics of the time of CONSTANT, it is not only entertaining, but gives the reader an insight into the character of the great man that can be obtained through no other publication.

The work has just been translated into the English and we are able to present it to our friends, the owners of STODDARD'S LECTURES, on a proposition that will be found attractive.

This work is complete in THREE volumes containing 1300 pages, printed on good paper and bound in blue cloth with gold lettering.

Size of each volume 5¼ by 7¾ by 1½ inches.

See Our Offer on Other Side!

From an old Drawing by F. Grenier

PREPARATIONS FOR THE ADVANCE OF THE OLD GUARD AT WATERLOO

The THREE volumes contain twenty eight full page illustrations which are copies from famous pictures by the masterpainters.

OUR PROPOSITION: If you will send us one-half the unpaid balance of your account within fifteen days and one-half thirty days later (or you may send the full amount at once) we will THEN send you this three volume set of NAPOLEON, express prepaid.

Please make remittance in form of Postoffice or Express Money Order or Bank Draft.

WE find that a great many subscribers are not remitting until the latter part of the month. We send out approximately forty thousand notices the first of each month and to get them ready we have to begin shortly after the 15th. If your remittance is not received prior to the 15th it causes a great deal of confusion, and we shall appreciate it very much if you will send it as promptly as convenient. In the event you do not receive a notice by the 10th send your remittance and you will receive proper receipt.

Also DO NOT SEND CURRENCY EXCEPT at your own risk. We have had so many complaints during the past six months in regard to letters being stolen in the mail that we find it necessary to ask our patrons not to send currency. Always use post-office or express money order or bank draft.
